

Graduation Dinner Dance

Members of the Senior Class of the Northrop Institute of Technology in Inglewood will hold their annual winter graduation dinner dance Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Jumping Jack Restaurant in Torrance.

In charge of arrangements for the affair is Charles D. Widner, president of the Senior class who expects more than 75 couples to attend the gala affair. Professor and Mrs. John Evans will be faculty sponsors for the event with dancing to the strains of Keith Williams and his orchestra.

Graduation of the winter class of 1960 will be held Saturday evening, March 26, at 7:30 p.m. at the Institute of the Aeronautical Sciences Building at 7660 Beverly Blvd. in Los Angeles.

Winter Visitor

Mr. Emil Lundgren is a winter visitor at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lundgren, 28863 Westvale, Rolling Hills. After the wintry blasts of Minneapolis, Minnesota, which he calls home, he is enjoying many sightseeing trips in this balmy weather. With more to come, he plans an indefinite stay.

Lodge Will Have Guest

Torrance Rebekah Lodge will have as special guests of the evening, the District Deputy President, Mrs. Velma Tune and her staff of officers and escorts on Wednesday evening, March 23, at the regular meeting in the Torrance Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo Ave. The Noble Grand, Mrs. Frieda Shaffer, will call the lodge to order at 8 p.m.

There will be a special program commemorating the 127th birthday of the founder of the organization, Schuyler Colfax.

A special feature of the meeting will be the election of the delegates to the Rebekah Assembly in San Jose in May.

A large attendance is desired by the Noble Grand, Mrs. Shaffer. Mrs. Bonnie Roberts will be the chairman of the evening.

Family Dinner

In honor of their son, Robert who was celebrating a birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schott, 1407 Crenshaw Blvd., recently entertained at a family dinner. Those gathering to wish Bob a "Happy Birthday" were his sister, Kathy, home from Mount St. Mary's College in Los Angeles, and another sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griley and daughter, Teresa, of Downey.

Alpha Thetas Will Observe Founders Day

Southern California Federation of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority will hold a Founder's Day luncheon at the Biltmore Hotel ballroom March 26 at 11:30 a.m. Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority was founded on Jan. 27, 1870 at De Pauw University at Greencastle, Indiana.

Mrs. Robert Wilcox of the Newport - Orange Coast Theta alumnae club will be the toast-mistress.

The main speaker will be Mrs. Milton M. Teague of the Santa Paula sorority, who is now on the board of trustees of Stanford University. She was formerly on the board of trustees of Camarillo State Hospital in 1954. Her subject will be "The College Woman in the Community."

Mrs. James Lloyd of Los Angeles, Federation president, will present awards to 50-year Thetas.

Mrs. Joseph White of Los Angeles will be an honored guest and will give a toast to the founders.

The South Bay Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club will hold its monthly meeting Friday, March 20, at the home of Mrs. John Faherty, 721 Via Del Monte, Palos Verdes with Mrs. Robert Haworth and Mrs. Milton Damerow as co-hostesses. The meeting will be a 12 o'clock luncheon. Plans will be made for attending the Theta Founder's Day luncheon at the Biltmore Hotel the following day. Any Thetas in the area are welcome to attend this meeting and may phone Mrs. Faherty.

Lithuanian Recipes Are Donated by Mrs. Kirsnis

Authentic Lithuanian recipes enjoyed at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kirsnis, Jr. 4230 W. 181st St. are being shared with Torrance Herald readers today.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Kirsnis are first generation Americans, whose parents were born in Lithuania. Both read, write and speak the language.

The couple have two children, Mark Michael, 2½ years old, and Dana Rose, 8 months. They have lived in Torrance since Dr. Kirsnis began his dental practice in Hollywood Riviera two and a half years ago.

Dr. Kirsnis' father, who makes his home with them, often treats the family to a wonderful homemade sausage.

Mrs. Kirsnis plays the piano and the saxophone and currently is taking accordion lessons. Dr. Kirsnis enjoys chess and cards.

The guest cook today is an active member of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary, working at the hospital one day a week. She is also a member of the L.A. Women's Dental Auxiliary, Catholic Daughters of America and the Carmelite Auxiliary. She is a former charter member of the Chicago, Ill., Deck and Derrick Club.

Dr. Kirsnis is a member of the Los Angeles and Southern California Dental Assns. He holds membership in the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity and Knights of Columbus.

The family attends the St. Catherine Laboure Catholic Church. Aside from their usual activities, both enjoy taking care of the 40 rose-bushes that surround their home.

Three of their choice dishes are given in today's column.

KUGELIS (POTATO PUDDING)

4 lg. raw potatoes
2 small boiled potatoes
1 egg
1 c milk
2 tbsp. bacon fat
or butter
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. flour
salt and pepper

Peel raw potatoes and grate. Mash peeled boiled potatoes. Combine both with remaining ingredients. Pour into greased tin or casserole. Bake at 450 degrees for 15 minutes; reduce to 350 degrees bake for 45 minutes longer.

BULVINIAI KUKULIAI (Potato Zeppelins)

8 lg. potatoes
4 small boiled potatoes
1 tsp. salt
2 eggs
½ lb. ground beef
1 small onion
salt and pepper

Peel and grate potatoes. Strain through cloth. Add mashed boiled potatoes, salt, pepper, beaten eggs and starch which had settled in the strained juice. Combine thoroughly. Pat this mixture into oblongs about the size and shape of small frankfurter rolls. On each oblong place a spoonful of meat to which chopped onion, salt and pepper have been added. Fold potato mixture around meat. Drop into boiling salted water. Boil 25 to 30 minutes. Serve with finely chopped fried bacon with onions or melted butter or sour cream.

CRULLERS (ZAGARELIAI) 50 COOKIES

4 egg yolks
¼ c powdered sugar
3 tbsp butter
1 ½ c flour
1 tsp. brandy
1 tsp. lemon rind (grated)

Mix ingredients and stir until well blended. Chill. Turn dough onto floured baking board. Roll out thin. With pastry wheel cut stripes ¼ inches wide and 3 inches long. Cut gash in center and twist end through. Fry in deep fat (375 degrees) until light brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Sprinkle crullers with powdered sugar.

Car Club Has Initiation

Squaws Car Club of Torrance held its annual initiation on Sunday, March 12. Much to the surprise of the initiates, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning they were kidnapped from their beds and taken to Torrance Park.

They were blindfolded and put into their cars and taken to Sycamore Grove, between Riverside and Anaheim. Escorted to the grove, they were left to find their way back to the cars.

The group returned to a Torrance restaurant for breakfast. New members are Donna Dunklin, Sandy and Kathy LaGuardia, Judy Raymond, Beva Tapley, Susan Cemore and Sandy Boudroux.

Anyone wishing to join the group is asked to call Gayle Forrest or the Torrance Police Dept., which sponsors the club.

Card Party

Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors will sponsor a public card party Tuesday evening, March 22, in the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. Play will begin at 8:15 promptly. The usual games will be played with prizes for high scores.

Mrs. Ruth Garland and her committee will serve refreshments during the adding of the tallies.

Dianas Plan Fund Raising Activities

Board members of the Redondo Beach Dianas, Marina District, CFWC, junior membership, held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Roger Gardemann.

Mrs. Charles Hillinger, president, presided as reports were heard from the following officers: Mmes. Leonard Comer, first vice president and program chairman; Paul Taylor, second vice president and ways and means chairman; Milo Brunskill, philanthropy chairman; George Jurisich, corresponding secretary; Marvin Jones, treasurer; John Harrison, hostess chairman; John Kenny, points and membership chairman; Roger Gardemann, civic service chairman; Sheldon Goldenson, federation extension secretary; Ray Henning, shot, parliamentary; Francis Cook, press; Pat O'Leary, bulletin; and Al Lukes, coordinator to the Dianas from the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, Evening Division.

Mrs. Taylor reported the card party sponsored by Dianas to raise money for their philanthropies was most successful. Future fund-raising activities include a February dance and a rummage sale to be held in March. Details of these events will be announced later.

Mrs. Brunskill reported the gift of five dozen phonograph records to Dianas from Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baker for presentation to the Children's Baptist Home in Inglewood.

Mrs. Edward Curry's appointment as chairman of the couple's bridge was announced by Mrs. Hillinger.

Entre Nous Club Meets

Entre Nous Club was entertained recently by Evelyn Schooley of 2517 Eldorado, Torrance. A Spanish dinner was served by the hostess to the following members: Esther Jensen, Betty Bruchie, Phyllis Fluhrer, Betty Stevens, Wanda Martin, Iris Wild, Jean Clark, Irene Little, Maxine Little, Ethel Wolford, Billie Gough, Eileen Miller, Dotty Nobbs, Ruth Lutes, and special guest Nancy and Cheryl Jensen and Marlene Whittington.

The St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out in the floral arrangements, napkins and other decorations.

The big surprise of the evening was the announcement by Esther Jensen of the engagement of her daughter, Cheryl, to Mr. Tom Burch. The traditional box of candy was passed to members and friends, which had been beautifully decorated with white nylon tulle and a white orchid. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jensen, her parents, have lived in this area for many years and have a host of friends. They are presently residing in La Mirada. Cheryl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hoflund, are long-time residents of Inglewood.

The April meeting of the Entre Nous Club will be held at the home of Billie Gough, in Canoga Park.

The door prizes for the evening were won by Cheryl and Nancy Jensen.

Ethel Wolford brought several artificial Easter lilies, which will be delivered to the Harbor General Hospital to be enjoyed during the Lenten season. At Easter time appropriate tray favors and treats will be furnished by Club members.

Plans were made for the Mothers' luncheon, to be held May 1 at the Cockatoo Inn. Ruth Lutes will be in charge of reservations.

Revelation of Secret Pals followed the business meeting. New pals for the coming year were also chosen.

Club Marks Birthday

The Debs, a teen-age club in Lomita, celebrated its first birthday with a party at the home of Mrs. Jack Spagnol, 2357 241st, on March 3.

Mothers of the girls were special guests. A buffet supper was served, followed by a decorated birthday cake.

Mothers attending were Mmes. Mabel Foster, Louise Walker, Joe Mozzetti, Edna Holley, Elbert Ward, Jack Spagnol, T. J. Gadberry, Kelsey D. Hall and Robert Seligson.

Debs celebrating their birthday party were Franke Ward, Mary Holley, Margaret Sorenson, Lani Foster, Donna Dunklin, Nike Daniels, Jayne Gasberry, Carrie Pisei, Mary Cochren, Lorraine Mozzetti and Jackie Spagnol.
